On this two-day/one-night trip, experience two fascinating and completely different Florida gems: St Augustine, dripping in history and the oldest city in the USA, and Fernandina Beach, Amelia Island's charming, historic town, where something unique and beautiful lurks around every corner.

In St Augustine, tour the Old City on the hop-on, hop-off trolley tour; marvel at the beauty of Flagler College during the guided tour; and spend time at the fascinating Lightner Museum. Then, you are on your own to explore. We will have dinner in the Old City before departing.

Overnight on Amelia Island at the Hampton Inn in Fernandina Beach. After breakfast on day 2, tour the town with a step-on guide who will introduce us to its history and treasures. Then, you can explore on your own, shop, and have lunch.

Back on our motor coach, we will visit the iconic Fort Clinch, where Union soldiers will inform and entertain us with a tour of the never-fired-up Union fort.

This is an active trip. The tours in St Augustine and Fernandina Beach involve a lot of standing and walking, as well as getting off and getting back on the trolley in St Augustine.

The escorted trip includes transport, accommodation, breakfast, dinner, two tours in St Augustine and two tours in Fernandina Beach, museum entrance, snacks, and the bus driver's tip.

The trip will leave Bluffton at 7:30 am and return about 7:30 pm on day 2.
